Design Kati Meyer-Brühl & Roland Meyer-Brühl

reddot winner 2024

Experiencing joie de vivre: the seating range aoyama – named after Tokyo’s most elegant district – is characterised by the meticulousness and precision, the fine details and the attention to brief, special moments in everyday life that are the hallmark of Japanese aesthetics. This generously-sized corner suite consisting of a long chair and add-on sofa is an amazingly comfortable refuge. The oval stool with a striped pattern on the top echoes the colours of the seat cushions. Top right: A corner arrangement can also be created with an add-on sofa and a corner add-on sofa.

The surfaces, contours and seams of the smooth black leather upholstery, which is slightly gathered in the middle and gives the sofa a luxurious look, reveal the exquisite craftsmanship behind aoyama. A mix of cushions adds layered geometric accents. The dividing seam on the seat base contributes to its well-balanced proportions.

Top right: Airy two-seater in white with a matching armchair.
