

four-two soft

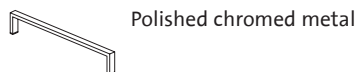

Design Roland Meyer-Brühl

Somewhere to play, to lounge around on, a cosy bed or a comfortable sofa: four-two soft is a powerful master in the art of easy convertibility. A variable system made up of a long chair and a swivel sofa offers a maximum range of possibilities when space is limited – as well as soft seating comfort, perfected with a set of rectangular and square loose cushions. The long chair armrest is movable and serves as an additional backrest when pulled forward. On request, four-two soft can be made even more comfortable with optional headrests or table areas. four-two soft can be ordered with the long chair on the right- or on the left-hand side of the swivel sofa. The covers are removable.
