

libellule libellule princess

Design Kati Meyer-Brühl

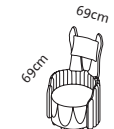

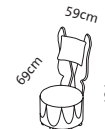

La belle libellule: With their graceful, wing-like backrests, the figurative high-back chairs libellule look as perfect in a New York rooftop garden as they do in an idyllic lakeside retreat. Many of the design features can be individually customised. The backrest of the poetic high-back chair libellule princess features an additional curve at the seat base and can also be decorated with a valance, as pictured on the left. The purist high-back chair libellule wood has a seat height of 50cm and is therefore suitable for use as a dining chair, and a beech, oak or walnut veneered bent plywood backrest.
